COURT APPOINTS RECEIVERS. Valuable Piece of Property Involved in Litigation. Justice Barnard yesterday signed a de-cree in the case of Charles M. Kelcher and others against Edwardina S. Warren and seventy others, appointing Messra W. Mosby Williams and Clarence R. Wilson receivers pendente lite in the place of William J. Warren, deceased, who for thirty years prior to his death was con-tinuously the chief clerk of the office of the Chief of Engineers in the War Depart-ment, to take charge of, rent, and collect the rents from the property involved in the proceedings. This property was part of lot 9, in square 576, located at the corner of First and Maryland Avenue, fronting Garfield statue at the foot of the Capitol grounds.

ing Garfield statue at the foot of the Capitol grounds.

The suit was filed some eighteen months ago by certain of the heirs of the late James Keleher against the other heirs, the heirs of Robert R. Pywell, Lewis H. Haslap, William Dalton, Michael McDermott, and Edward Simms, all now decased, to have the court decide if the parties held as tenants in common or as joint tenants under a certain deed made by William Gunton, trustee, in the year 1850, and for a sale of the property and division of the proceeds among the parties and for a sale of the property and division of the proceeds among the parties and for a sale of the property and division of the proceeds mong the parties of the property for the parties in interest, Gov. N. G. Ordway, being the lessee, having used it for the Government for some years while he was Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives.

R. is said the property is worth about $25.03 Mr. W. Mosby Williams represented the compatinants, while Messrs, Wilson & Wilson, A. H. Bell, W. E. Ambrose, A. A. Birney, F. Lewis, and others represented the several defendants.

REHEARSALS FOR LABOR DAY. Chorus Increased and Patriotle

Music Will Be Sung. The rehenral of the Labor Day chorus which took place yesterday afternoon at Typographical Temple, was a decided success. The girls who desire to represent the different unions affiliated with the Central Labor Union in the vocal feature of the celebration were out in force and acquitted themselves well. The rehearsal was in charge of James L. Feeney, Henry Smith, and Joseph Caldwell, who expressed themselves greatly pleased with the showing made by the little ones. Fifty-three voices were first formed as the size of the chorus, one girl representing each union. The anxiety of the little ones to take part in the Labor Day celebration, however, has influenced the committee in charge to increase the number. The songs rehearsed were the "Labor Day Ode," written by James L. Feeney, for the occasion, which was sung to the air of "America," the "Star Spanged Banner," 'Raily Round the Flag, and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." Rehearsals will be held on Tuesday and Thursday of next week. ith, and Joseph Caldwell, who ex
